

UTAH'S SENATOR, HIS ADVOCATES AND HIS OPPONENTS.

TO GET VOTE ON JAMESTOWN BILL

Maynard to Propose Measure As Amendment to Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

THE PRESIDENT AT NORFOLK

Possibility That Postmaster Fleet Will Be Retained at Ashland After All.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—There is every reason to believe that the House will be given a chance to vote on the Jamestown appropriation bill, as an amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill. Mr. Maynard will propose the amendment, and he believes that the chair will sustain it against any assault which may be made against it on a point of order. Under the rules governing the House, an amendment proposed to an appropriation bill will be ruled out if any member makes the point of order that the amendment proposed is new legislation, and not germane to the bill, providing the chairman or speaker thinks the point well taken.

There has been a question as to whether such an amendment to the sundry civil bill, as will be proposed by Mr. Maynard, would be subject to such a point of order. Mr. Tawney, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations does not believe this objection would lie. The amendment proposed by Mr. Maynard would be for an object already provided for in existing legislation, that is, in the bill passed last year, appropriating $50,000 for the exposition. The appropriation last year was for the entertainment of the visiting foreigners. It is pointed out, and will be pointed out when the amendment is proposed, that it is for the purpose of furthering an object already provided for, the entertainment of visitors. Sentiment is nearly unanimous that the chair will rule against a point of order made against such an amendment and that the House will be allowed to vote on the merits of the proposition.

This is all Mr. Maynard asked for. He is confident that a majority will vote to make the appropriation.

Ashland Case.

There is still a possibility of Postmaster Fleet being retained in his position of dispenser of mail for the Ashland post office. It is believed that the President would not make a great row if the Senate were to refuse to confirm the nomination of Mr. Fox, sent to the Senate several weeks ago. Capt. Lamb presented to the President to-day a petition from about 300 citizens of Ashland, including many Democrats, it was stated, asking that Postmaster Fleet be retained. The President assured Capt. Lamb he would be glad to appoint Mr. Fleet for another term, but that the petition came too late, as Mr. Fox had already been appointed. Capt. Lamb told the President that Mr. Fox had been a Democrat all the time and that the executive had probably been misled into appointing to office a man who was not a Republican. The President wanted to know whether Mr. Fleet had misled him, to which Capt. Lamb replied that he thought the

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much so as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the trying crisis without suffering.

FATE OF SENATOR SMOOT TO BE DECIDED THIS WEEK

Apparently Certain That Senate Committee Will Report Against Utah Member—Case Very Long Drawn Out.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—Senator Reed Smoot's fate as a member of the Senate chamber is in the balance.

The fight waged against him by the National League of Women's Organizations is nearing its end. It is expected that it will be finally disposed of by the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections on May 18th, the date set for a vote by the committee.

It appears certain that an adverse report on the senator's right to retain his seat in Congress will be made by a majority of the committee. Those who have concluded that Mr. Smoot's qualifications as a senator have not been impaired by reason of his being one of the twelve apostles of the Mormon Church in Utah will make a report asking that the case be dismissed. Both sides anticipated the completion of the case during the present session of Congress. Each is equally certain that the case will be determined to its satisfaction.

The case has occupied first place on the calendar of the Senate Committee for nearly three and one-half years. Four bulky volumes of testimony have been taken. Before it is finally disposed of the case bids fair to be the cause of one of the most stubborn fights ever waged on the Senate floor.

The fight will be on the question as to whether it will take a two-thirds vote of the Senate or simply a majority to declare his seat vacant. If the former rule prevails, it is practically conceded by those who claim to be familiar with the inward workings of the case that Mr. Smoot will not be molested. If a majority of the Senate can declare his seat vacant, then the senator's side will look gloomy.

If the protestants have proved their case against Senator Smoot, and the Senate rule that by virtue of his conduct he is disqualified to perform his duties as a senator, they declare he cannot lay claim to persecution.

The fight against him was begun almost at the same time that he announced his candidacy for the senatorial term to succeed Joseph F. Rawlins. When he was elected to the office he was notified that his election would be protested. E. B. Cretchlow, W. M. Padon and John J. Lottich were the real instigators of the investigation.

ATTACKED THE HEART

Awful Neuralgia Case Cured to Stay Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Neuralgia in any form is painful, but when it attacks the heart it is frequently fatal. Complicated with indigestion, a form that affected the vital organ, it threatened serious consequences in an instance just reported. The case is that of Mr. F. L. Graves, of Pleasant Hill, La., who tells of his trouble and cure as follows:

"I traveled considerably, was exposed to all kinds of weather and was irregular in my sleeping and eating. I suppose this was the cause of my sickness; but I was compelled to quit work and take to my bed. I had a good doctor and took his medicine faithfully, but grew worse. I gave up hope of getting better, and my neighbors thought I was surely going to die.

"I had smothering spells that it was as if a heavy iron ball fluted and seemed to crush beating. I could not lie on my left side at all. My hands and feet swelled and so did my face. After reading about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper I decided to try them, and they suited my case exactly. Before long I could see an improvement and after taking a few boxes I was entirely cured. I am glad to make this statement and wish it could cure every sufferer to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not simply neutralize the pain, they are guaranteed to contain no narcotic, stimulant or opiate. Those who take them run no danger of forming any drug habit. They act directly on the blood, and it is only through the blood that any medicine can reach the nerves.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medical Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

GENTILES CAUSE THE ARREST OF A MORMON

BASIN, WYO., May 13.—A sensation has been created here by the arrest yesterday of Bishop J. Jolly, head of the Mormon settlements in Big Horn county, numbering five thousand members, on the charge of sustaining polygamous relations with two wives.

The arrest of Bishop Jolly will be followed by the prosecution of nearly a score of other prominent members of the Mormon Church in this county on similar charges, it is said.

The alleged discovery that the Mormons, who now almost control Big Horn county, the largest in the State, and had planned to divide the county and create a new one, which they could control, aroused the Gentiles and influenced them to institute criminal proceedings on charges of polygamy.

LOVE-MAKING OF YOUNG KING LIKE THAT OF OTHER HUMANS

Ardor of Spanish Monarch Causes Much Amusement and Some Consternation in Royal Circles—Perfectly Indifferent to Surroundings.

LONDON, May 13.—The love-making of King Alfonso and the Princess Ena affords much amusement, not untinted with consternation, among the royal circle. Their ardor knows no bounds, and they are perfectly indifferent to their surroundings.

One day when Princess Ena was confined to her bed with a severe cold King Alfonso kicked up a terrific row because he was not permitted to sit by her bedside, and was only appeased by being allowed to sit for the greater part of the day outside her bedroom door talking to her all the time.

The Princess has quite a serious case of jealousy. When Alfonso was sailing off the yacht at Giralda to greet Ena they both rushed at each other simultaneously before the gangway was secured, and were scolding and railing at each other until the princess was brought back to the sea.

Each night Alfonso had to literally be ordered home by the Princess Henry of Battenberg, and he was always around again next morning before the royal household was well asleep.

The lovers were entirely unconscious of the nudging and snickering that went on among the royal suite as they trooped off to bed, and girl love antics, and only laughed when Ena's young brothers mimicked in pantomime their parents' meetings and tender partings.

At dinner Alfonso set aside all etiquette and insisted on sitting beside Ena, and they embraced each other under the table, entirely oblivious that they were not alone.

In view of this condition of affairs, the scene, when the party came for three weeks, was anticipated with profound anxiety. The King and Princess motor off together in a closed limousine from Kensington, and when they reached the car arrived at its destination, where Princess Henry and the King's suite were waiting them, the blinds were tightly drawn.

The car stopped, the company waited, but the royal lovers made no move to get out. For minutes this situation lasted, Ena's mother trying to preserve a grave countenance, as broader and broader smiles overpowered the countenance of all around her. At last, as she was about to tap on the window, the King stepped out and tenderly assisted his mother to alight.

They had one more wild embrace, and Ena, bathed in tears, rushed to bury her face in the bosom of her mother's maid, and girl love antics, and only laughed when Ena's young brothers mimicked in pantomime their parents' meetings and tender partings.

SERVICES HELD IN SAN FRANCISCO

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Indo-church services were held to-day for the first time since the earthquake of April 18th. Unburned buildings that have been declared safe by inspectors were thrown open for worship and musical convocations, and the churches were crowded.

In many temporary buildings that have been erected since the fire.

Sight-seers were not so numerous to-day as on previous Sundays. The day was quiet except for a quarrel between a citizen and a policeman. The officer had obtained a license somewhere and shot at the citizen during the quarrel. The policeman was arrested and deprived of his star.

Mayor Schmitz and several city officers to-day went with Engineer Schussler, of the Spring Valley Water Company, to inspect the water works south of San Francisco. Engineer Schussler showed the city officers how the mains were broken by the earthquake, although efforts had been made to obviate such an accident, by supporting the pipes on flexible tubes.

The water supply is now sufficient for domestic and fire purposes in the unburned portion of San Francisco.

MRS. LITTLETON HURT IN RUNAWAY

GARDEN CITY, L. I., May 13.—Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, wife of a former borough president, was severely injured to-day in a runaway accident while driving her favorite horse over the golf course of the Garden City Club, where, with a friend, she was witnessing a match.

A caddy was beating a small tin pan and her horse became frightened, and taking the bit in his teeth, bolted. The horse plunged down hill and the carriage was upset.

Mrs. Littleton was dragged under it a considerable distance before the horse plunged into a tree. This stunned him, and bystanders caught and held him. Mrs. Littleton was picked up half unconscious and taken to the Nassau Hospital.

Dr. Louis N. Lanchart was several miles away and was called on the telephone. He hurried to the hospital. He found that, besides suffering severely from shock and many contusions, Mrs. Littleton had broken two bones in her leg below the knee.

WILL RESUME WORK AT ANTHRACITE COLLIERIES

(By Associated Press.)
Scranton, Pa., May 13.—Work will be generally resumed to-morrow at practically all of the anthracite collieries. All of the imported men have been shipped away and almost all evidence of their occupation of the collieries has been removed. None of the companies will post notices setting forth that the collieries will be operated under a continuation of the award of the Anthracite Strike Commission. Company, said this afternoon: "We shall post no more notices. There were notices posted before the suspension went into effect. These must suffice. I guess the men understand the terms under which they are coming back to work."
